

PLATTE CANYON WATER AND SANITATION DISTRICT
ARAPAHOE AND JEFFERSON COUNTIES, COLORADO

RESOLUTION 2010-3-1
Honoring Hamlet “Chips” Barry

WHEREAS, Hamlet “Chips” Barry was appointed manager of Denver Water in January 1991; and,

WHEREAS, Denver Water is the largest municipal water supplier in the State of Colorado and provides potable water to 1.3 million people in the City of Denver and surrounding suburbs including Platte Canyon Water and Sanitation District; and,

WHEREAS, Chips Barry has sustained and solidified Denver Water’s ongoing commitment to provide a firm, adequate, high quality and reliable supply of water to all Denver Water distributors including Platte Canyon Water and Sanitation District; and,

WHEREAS, Chips Barry has provided focused and committed leadership through many adverse water supply conditions including numerous destructive wild fires in Denver Water watersheds, one of the most severe droughts in Colorado history, and increasingly more restrictive and costly water supply, storage, treatment and delivery requirements and regulations; and,

WHEREAS, Chips Barry has initiated and advanced open, transparent, meaningful and cooperative communications between Denver Water and its distributors; and,

WHEREAS, Chips Barry has employed a multilateral inclusive and collaborative style of policy development and decision making during his tenure as manager of Denver Water; and,

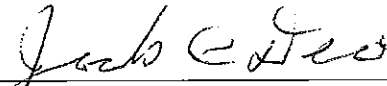

WHEREAS, Chips Barry has retained, developed and promoted a senior staff that is nationally recognized for its technical ability and expertise and its professional manner; and,

WHEREAS, Chips Barry has consistently advocated a balanced approach toward water development, conservation and reuse and preservation of environmental values while providing for the water needs of present and future customers of Denver Water and Platte Canyon Water and Sanitation District

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF PLATTE CANYON WATER AND SANITATION DISTRICT hereby expresses its appreciation and gratitude to Chips Barry for his 19 years of dedicated exemplary management and leadership of Denver Water, and, further wishes Mr. Barry a long and enjoyable retirement.

Adopted by the Board of Directors of Platte Canyon Water and Sanitation District this 26th Day of March 2010.
